

Lecturers in Digital Entrepreneurship Management Program
Participated in Considering the Draft of the National Professional Standards in Information Technology, Communication and Digital Content

Department of Information Technology, Sripatum University be the host for conducting a review project of the national professional standards in Information Technology, Communication and Digital Content. In this regard, the lecturers of the Digital Entrepreneurship Management program participated in considering the draft of the national professional standards and assessment tools on 16 October 2019 from 09.00 - 16.00 hrs. At Auditorium 1, 40-year Building, Sripatum University (Bang Khen).

