Full-time lecturer in Digital Entrepreneurship Management Program participated in the review of professional qualifications and professional standards in Information Technology, Communication, and Digital Contents

Department of Information Technology, Sriprathum University, in conjunction with Thailand Professional Qualification Institute (Public Organization) conducted a project to review the professional standards and qualifications in Information Technology, Communication, and Digital Contents in order to jointly review and create professional standards and qualifications to have professional standards that are in line with the needs of entrepreneurs and suitable for the context of Thailand.

In this regard, the teacher of the Digital Entrepreneurship Management program participated in the reviewing of the draft of the professional qualifications and professional standards (e-learning branch) and joined the presentation of the reviewing results on Saturday, November 23, from 9 AM – 4 PM at the Convention 1 Room, 40th Anniversary Building, Sripathum University (Bang Khen).